TravelPay™

Why is TravelPay so good for me?

With TravelPay, you can lock in the exchange rate, the best price, 'early bird' and other deals NOW without the big upfront cost. You pay for your travel over 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 or 10 interest-free monthly instalments on your credit/debit card. You don't have to apply for a loan or a separate card.

This is the affordable and convenient way to pay for your travel. It helps you manage your budget and cash flow.

You can use TravelPay for any travel booking, as long as your last instalment is at least 14 days before your departure date.

How does TravelPay lock in the exchange rate and best price?

TravelPay forwards the full amount of your travel costs to your Travel Agent upfront, so they can lock in your booking at current prices and exchange rates.

What does TravelPay cost?

Aside from the $100 establishment fee ($200 for 10-month option), the customer pays no more than if they paid the whole cost upfront directly to you. A standard 2.5% card processing fee applies to all payments, and with 10 month option the customer must pay 20% of the travel cost on the 1st instalment.

Which of my cards can I use with TravelPay?

Visa or MasterCard credit or debit cards.

How to arrange TravelPay Layby

It's simple...

- Step 1: Your Travel Agent makes your reservation
- Step 2: Your Travel Agent completes your form and sends it to TravelPay. (Access forms at www.travelpay.com.au/forms)
- Step 3: TravelPay processes your first instalment and the establishment fee to your card and then forwards full payment for your travel to your Travel Agent
- Step 4: Your travel agent confirms your travel booking
- Step 5: After your final instalment has been paid, TravelPay notifies your Travel Agent and they will release your travel documents.

What if I need to change or cancel my booking?

If your booking terms permit, you can arrange any minor changes with your Travel Agent.

If you need to cancel your booking or make major changes, advise TravelPay and your Travel Agent. Using TravelPay does not alter the cancellation terms of your booking. If you cancel, you will receive a refund of your instalment payments less any amount that is non-refundable by the Travel Agent or supplier. TravelPay establishment and card processing fees are non-refundable and there is a TravelPay cancellation fee of $250.

We strongly advise you to arrange travel insurance as recommended by your travel agent to cover you for unforeseen circumstances outside your control - if your travel has to be cancelled or rearranged, or to cover you for lost luggage, medical expenses, changing travel arrangements etc.
